

Job Posting

Position Title: Assistant Manager – Process Safety, Chemistry

No. of Position: 1

Job overview:

- To assist in maintaining and strengthening the Process Safety Management system and practices of Chemistry, Pharmaceuticals and C & BD functions at the Ankleshwar site. Focus on developing and deploying programs to improve process safety and to reduce overall risk at site.

Responsibilities:

- Develop & drive the implementation a comprehensive process safety management system as per company standard & guidelines.
- Continually monitor and analyse Process Safety hazards to reduce risks at the site by carrying out plant round, inspection, surveys, process safety studies and risk assessment reviews.
- Prepare written technical reports with recommendations for corrective actions to control hazards Also assisting other department HOD's on the shop floor for implementation of corrective actions Identified and evaluated exposure to a variety of chemical, physical and biological hazards
- Carry out the deviation analysis/ HAZOP for all new products/process and modification of existing processes with the team.
- Determine the requirement of process safety data studies for all process steps and conduct the studies with the help of internal/external resources.
- Drive the identification of key safety elements and their management program. Organizing and conducting HSE related meetings, training / awareness programs including execution of mock drill.
- Analyse process safety incidents and near misses and develop recommendations to improve performance. Conducted briefings on a variety process safety management system elements
- Assist other departments in preparation of HSE related procedures, SOPs, forms etc. Support major capital projects in design consulting, technical safety assurance and start-up assistance.
- Lead process hazard analysis and other safety reviews of chemical processes and projects.
- To Ensure interpretation of new and revised legislations impacting process safety To Write and update HSE procedures and reports.
- To Work with other departments and propose precautionary controls for electrical and non-electrical explosion protection and develop action plan.
- Assist HOD in reporting of data on HSE as per site, Group and Statutory requirements. To Ensure interpretation of new and revised legislations impacting process safety

Requirements & Qualifications:

- B.E. Chemical OR Masters in Science and Technology
- 5 year experience in Chemical Plant,
- Knowledge of:
 - Statutory HSE requirements

- Chemical processes
- HSE legislations
- SAP, MS office
- Basic knowledge of Waste management and Environment protection
- Good communication Proactiveness & Assertiveness

Term of employment: : Individual contributor role

What makes this position unique?

- This position will provide good exposure to work in regulatory environment with high level of compliance to HSE & Quality systems

Location information: Ankleshwar

